Dress Rehearsal Information

* Dress rehearsal will be the last week of class (Monday October 9-Saturday October 14, 2023) during your child's class at your center. Due to the size of the dance room, only 1 parent may attend the (no strollers please).

Show Information

*Each performer will be required to pay for a $10.00 performance fee armband (if your child is in more than 1 class the fee will cover all performances) through the CANDO website by October 1, 2023. The armband will be handed out at dress rehearsal.

*The performer will need to have the armband on during the performance.

*No cost for admission to the outside performance as it will be open to the public.

*Seating will not be provided by TGD, families are welcome to bring their own chairs or blankets (UMBRELLAS & TENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED).

*Please arrive dressed to perform 45 minutes prior to your child's performance (due to finding parking).

*Performers must remain with parents until called to perform (left side of the stage when facing it).

*Performers should be picked up by one parent only at the conclusion of their dance (left side of the stage when facing it).

*For performance updates please see the CANDO website at www.candosports.org under dance-events.

*If your child is not able to participate in the performance please let your child's instructor know as soon as possible.
